Hate Crime

Would you like to be a member of a Police Scrutiny Panel and help to make a difference?

Panels meet locally to scrutinise how West Yorkshire Police investigate Hate Crime. They include staff from different agencies and members of the public.
New members welcome.

Refreshments are provided at meetings.

You would be able to scrutinise cases of Transphobic, Homophobic or Sexual Orientation Hate Crimes and Incidents reported to the Police. The Scrutiny Panel will:

- ensure victims receive a high quality of service from the Police and partner agencies
- ensure that incidents are dealt with sensitively and speedily
- increase satisfaction, trust and confidence of victims and communities
- provide reassurance to victims and communities from the Police and partner agencies
