We are seeking to appoint an Assistant Director for Helpline Contracts and Partnerships!

Stop Hate UK is a small charity with a mighty mission and our people are at the heart of our success. We are excited to be recruiting for an Assistant Director for Helpline Contracts and Partnerships to join our hard working team. This is a highly rewarding role that deliver strategic, coordinated and ambitious communications and engagement with our commissioners and develop opportunities to engage at both strategic and operational levels within each area that we are funded to work in.

The post-holder will maintain partners across the UK to ensure that we meet our contractual requirements with each of the commissioners of this service. In addition, ensuring that the commissioners and other stakeholders maximise the potential of this unique service.

At the core of our charity is a culture of collaboration and best practice, with professional development and career planning at its centre. The environment at Stop Hate UK is one which is built on values of inclusivity, integrity, inspiration, and equality. We look for talented individuals who share our vision for creating a world free from hate, and are committed to ensuring everyone in the UK has access to our services as we continue to expand across the country.

Stop Hate UK welcomes applications from all sections of the community regardless of race, gender or transgender identity, faith, disability, sexual orientation, age, or other aspects of your identity.

All applicants should note that appointment will be subject to a satisfactory Disclosure and Barring Service check.
